

Sara Dingmann

Multimedia Reporter

4175 Mallard Pl SE, Rochester, MN 55904
507- 696-5674, sadingma@gmail.com

Portfolio:

<https://sadingma.wixsite.com/dingmann>

Skills

Video – Audio Recording – Photography
Adobe Creative Suite – Editing - SQLite
Social Listening – Social Media

Bachelor of Journalism

University of Missouri, Columbia, MO Emphasis in Convergence
GPA: 3.8
Anticipated Graduation: May 2021

Volunteering

Mizzou Alternative Breaks, Participant
Served on weeklong volunteer trips with emphasis on health and disabilities.

Awards

George C. Brooks Scholar
(2017 – Present)
Diversity and achievement scholarship

Dean's List
(Fall 2017 – Spring 2020)

References available on request

Experience

Capitol Radio Reporter, Missouri Broadcasters Association
January 2021 - Present, Jefferson City, MO

Wrote, recorded, and edited 45 second radio stories about hearings and press conferences at the Capitol, including hearing coverage and COVID-19 updates from the governor.

Reporting Intern, Alexandria Living Magazine
Fall 2020, Alexandria, VA

Reported and produced video series on local artisans. Shot and produced video. Created motion graphics in After Effects. Wrote breaking news, briefs, issue and feature stories.

Research Assistant, Reynolds Journalism Institute
September 2020 – Present, Columbia, MO

Contributor to the Innovation in Focus series where I tested Instagram Reels and Descript's video editing software.

Freelance Reporting

June 2020 – December 2020, Rochester, MN

Wrote profile for Kaiser Health News Lost on the Frontline project and feature articles for Rochester Women Magazine about those who organized Black Lives Matter protests.

Audience Engagement, Columbia Missourian
Spring 2020, Columbia, MO

Posted social content promoting stories on Facebook and Twitter. Created content for the paper's Instagram account. Duties were a part of course work.

Editorial Intern, Post Bulletin
Summer 2019, Rochester, MN

Covered events, wrote news briefs and feature stories, including profiling a local band heading to bigger things.